

Working with Gender and Sexuality from Class 5 - 12

With Lisa Romero

"Without sense-born love, nothing material would exist in the world; without spiritual love, nothing spiritual can arise in evolution." Rudolf Steiner

This course is for teachers, health professionals and those working with children and adolescents from Classes 5 - 12 to understand how gender differences and similarities work in childhood development, human relationships and spiritual development in the changing needs of our time.

It will build an understanding of how to bring a healthy picture of development in the context of Waldorf pedagogy which keeps the child united to the whole and does not cause a division in consciousness.

When working out of anthroposophy we are asked not to judge the other by gender and to teach in a unisexual way. Only through deep understanding of the un-freedom of being man or woman can we contribute to the education and development of others in freedom.

LISA ROMERO is a complementary health practitioner and adult educator who has applied anthroposophy to her practice since 1990 and delivered education enriched with anthroposophy since 1998. From 2006 the primary focus of her work has been teaching inner development and anthroposophical meditation. Steiner Books has published her books: "The Inner Work Path - A Foundation for Meditative Practice in the Light of Anthroposophy" and "Developing the Self - Through the Inner Work Path in the Light of Anthroposophy".

Lisa lectures and presents courses and retreats on the inner work and anthroposophical meditation for professional and personal development. These are offered throughout the year in many communities worldwide. Lisa's capacity to deliver esoteric wisdom with insight and understanding allows her to meet diverse needs of communities and professions.

For several years Lisa was the lecturer for Health and Nutrition and Male/Female Studies at Sydney Rudolf Steiner College where she now continues to lecture the tutors on inner development. She also designed and facilitated the Educaredo Towards Health and Healing course. This training ran eight, year-long courses working with therapists from all modalities as well as Waldorf teachers to bring the practical application of therapeutic and pedagogical methods. She continues to teach in numerous trainings and seminars for several organisations.

Essentially Lisa's work springs from the inner work, meditation and exercises together with a dedication to the path of unfolding consciousness. She brings a depth of insight that is reflected in the experiences and changes of the participants who share in this work.
