

Why Waldorf Education?

Meeting the Needs of 21st Century Children

A Talk by Lisa Romero 7pm February 28, 2017

Primrose Hill School 23 Spring Brook Park, Rhinebeck, NY

"Collaboration 2" Painting by Laura Summer

This talk by Lisa Romero, a visiting lecturer from Australia, will explore the deep wisdom of Waldorf Education and how it provides guidance and support for children's journey through the grades towards inner development and freedom in adulthood. This opportunity is highly valuable for teachers, parents, therapists and those wishing to gain an increased insight into child development and the pedagogical approaches that support healthy growth. This talk is free. www.primrosehillschool.com
